

Health and Care Research Wales funding awardees 2018

Congratulations to the following who have been awarded funding in 2018 through the following research funding schemes: Research for Patient & Public Benefit Wales, Social Care Grant, Health Research Grants and Clinical Research Time Awards.

Further information on these schemes are available on the respective funding scheme webpage <https://www.healthandcareresearch.gov.wales/funding/our-funding-schemes/> and we will be publishing a Funded Projects Archive and Funding Board Recommendation documents in 2018/19.

Research for Patient and Public Benefit Wales projects

RfPPB-17-1375(T): Dr Anwen Cope – Cardiff & Vale UHB

Developing a decision aid to support shared decision making regarding risk-based recall intervals in general dental practice

RfPPB-17-1409: Prof Jeremy Hall – Aneurin Bevan UHB

Treating Anxiety to Prevent Relapse in Schizophrenia (TAPERS) - a feasibility trial

RfPPB-17-1423(T): Dr Gareth Roberts – Cardiff & Vale UHB

Which factors determine treatment choices in patients with advanced kidney failure: Co-productive study with patients and key stakeholders

RfPPB-17-1425: Mr Grayham Mclean – Welsh Ambulance Service NHS Trust

ARRIVE: Ambulance paramedics Responding to urgent patient Requests in general practice for home Visits - Evaluation development

RfPPB-17-1458: Professor Dean Harris – Abertawe Bro Morgannwg UHB

Patient acceptability and clinical effectiveness of combined Raman/FIT testing for colorectal cancer diagnosis in primary care

Fellowship Scheme: Health Care Fellowship

HF-17-1352: Dr Stephanie Smits – Cardiff University

Understanding experience, completion and outcomes of colorectal cancer screening among participants with multi-morbidity

HF-17-1411: Dr David Gillespie – Cardiff University

Development of an intervention to Optimise use of pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) to prevent HIV-acquisition in at-risk individuals living in Wales [DO-PrEP]

HF-17-1420: Dr Ashrafunnessa Khanom – Swansea University

INFORM: Improving care for people who Frequently call 999: co-production of guidance through an Observational study using Routine linked data and Mixed methods

HF-17-1427: Dr Sara Long – Cardiff University

Integration of health and wellbeing into the school curriculum: a mixed methods investigation of preparations for Wales-wide school reform and it's impacts on health and well-being (starts October 2019)

National Institute for Health Research

NIHR-FS-PD-2018: Rhys Bevan Jones – Cardiff University

Further development and feasibility trial of an online psychoeducational intervention for adolescent depression

Research Funding Scheme: Social Care Grant

SCG-17-1472: Dr Ceri Jones – Cardiff University

Time Credits as a Social Prescription: The Co-production of a Conceptual Framework, Programme Evaluation and Social Return on Investment

SCG-17-1473: Dr Martin Elliott – Cardiff University

Child Welfare Inequalities in Wales: Practice and Prevention

Health PhD Studentship

HS-18-07: Dr Sharon Williams – Swansea University

Co-producing an intervention to improve care for children with Autism Spectrum Disorders: A cross-disciplinary mixed-methods study

HS-18-18(T): Dr Rhiannon Phillips – Cardiff University

Starting a family when you have inflammatory arthritis: can a co-production approach to creating pre-conception health improve the sustainability of NHS services?

HS-18-32: Dr Tom Wilkinson – Swansea University

Identifying host and bacterial biomarkers to predict sepsis

HS-18-33(T): Professor Ian Jones – Cardiff University

Making the invisible visible: Using lived experiences of severe mental illness around childbirth to co-produce tools for individualised pregnancy planning

Clinical Research Time Award

CRTA-18-02: Mrs Julie Cornish – Cardiff & Vale UHB

CRTA-18-17: Dr Tom Rackley – Velindre University NHS Trust

CRTA-18-19: Dr Mark Davies – Abertawe Bro Morgannwg UHB

CRTA-18-22: Dr Adam Mackridge – Betsi Cadwaladr UHB

CRTA-18-23: Dr James Powell – Velindre University NHS Trust

CRTA-18-26: Mr Chris Moore – Welsh Ambulance Services NHS Trust

Words: 529