The three categories of involvement

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category Blue</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>Reward</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Public members knowledge, experience & time commitment | • Experiential knowledge
• No experience of public involvement required
• Limited time commitment and no requirement for travel or personal attendance
• No expenses incurred | • Surveys where large numbers are required
• Short telephone interviews
• Researcher attending community events to gather opinions | • Contribution valued
• Opportunity to access training and support
• No offer of payment |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category Green</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>Reward</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Public members knowledge, experience & time commitment | • Experiential knowledge
• Evidence of some experience and understanding of public involvement
• Basic training/ introduction to public involvement
• Able to commit their time
• Commitment to confidentiality and possibly an ‘Opportunity Agreement’
• Attendance at meetings, skype or teleconference
• Could involve researchers arranging a mutually acceptable venue and time | • Public involvement with research development, (e.g.: advisory panel or surgery, research development group)
• Commenting on public facing material, study conduct (e.g.: Trial Management/Steering groups etc)
• Dissemination of results to bring a consumer/public perspective
• To include public involvement panels/surgeries that can be accessed by researchers
• Infrastructure public involvement groups
• Lay faculties | • Opportunity to access training and support
• Peer support
• Reimbursement of expenses and or booking of travel etc.
• Offer of up to £20 per hour or equivalent token/voucher/time banking for the public involvement undertaken (time to be stipulated) |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category Red</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>Reward</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Public members knowledge, experience & time commitment | • Evidence of experience and training in public involvement as well as specific expertise or experience such as chairing or reviewing documents for a research funding application
• A clear commitment of their time is required which includes preparation, such as reading documents
• Commitment to confidentiality, an ‘Opportunity Agreement’ and possibly a ‘Code of Conduct’ or ‘Charter’ is required
• Attendance at meetings, skype or teleconference
• Less likely to involve researchers arranging a mutually acceptable venue and time | • Public involvement governance, strategy and policy development
• Member of board
• Member of management group
• Member of review panel.
• Member of interview panel
• Presentation development and delivery
• Facilitation of public involvement training | • Opportunity to access training and support
• Peer support
• Training specific to the opportunity if required
• Possible secretarial support
• Reimbursement of expenses and or booking of travel etc.
• Offer of up to £20 for per hour of public involvement undertaken including preparation (the time to be stipulated) |